Notice to Vendors:
• Subject to the conditions, provisions and the specifications associated with this RFQ, quotes will be received at the designated location until the stated date and time.
• Waukee Community School District reserves the right to reject any or all quotes received, waive irregularities or technicalities in any quote, which it deems to be in its best interest.
• Quotation should include shipping, delivery, unboxing, barcoding, book covering, cataloging, installation and removal of all trash.
• Waukee Community School District is a tax-exempt school district in Iowa. Payment will be made in full within (30) days after delivery and installation of product is completed.
• Successful company shall comply with all requirements set for by the district for installation, including, but not limited to background checks being completed for all installers.
• Delivery and applicable installation will be coordinated with successful bidder (in coordination with furniture arrival). Deliveries must be arranged with the district in advance and will be delivered to: Northwest High School - 655 NW 10th Street, Waukee, Iowa 50263

- The District reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to seek clarification upon responses received. RFQ submissions will be evaluated based on a variety of factors, including but not limited to:
  - Best value to Waukee Community School District
  - Ability to meet specifications
  - Warranty
  - Responsiveness to RFQ terms
  - Cost
  - Vendor experience and references
- All vendors will be notified via email of the district’s decision.
- Questions may only be submitted via e-mail to Kirk J. Johnson, Chief Operations Officer at kjohnson3@waukeeschools.org. Questions are allowed between March 4 - 18, 2021. The district will provide responses to those questions deemed appropriate to all vendors via the district’s website: https://waukeeschools.org/departments/business-services/notice-to-bidders-rfp/. Responses will not be provided on an individual basis.
Waukee Community School District Library Philosophy Statement
Waukee Community School District students will become ethical, information literate, life-long learners who appreciate literature and reading. Waukee teacher librarians are instructional partners who collaborate to supplement and enhance instruction by integrating literacy and technology skills across the curriculum. As reading advocates, they provide a current and diverse collection of resources to support the district’s curriculum, inspire a love of reading and empower students to become information literate. They foster a positive, welcoming environment to allow learners to reflect and imaginations to expand.

Library Collection General Preferences
- Strong preference for a collection centered around values of equity, diversity, social justice, and inclusion. This would include diverse themes, diverse characters, and diverse authors in all genres.
- A minimum of 7,000 (maximum 9,000) well-reviewed books, with 2+ copies of popular titles
- Preferred balance of 70% fiction/30% non-fiction
- Non-fiction genres should include:
  - Informational texts
  - Narrative nonfiction
  - Biographies
  - Spanish/Arabic language
  - Minimal reference collection

Library Opening Collection Title Suggestions
The following book lists include titles with high circulation data or strong ties to curricular courses in our secondary buildings. These are meant to provide an interested vendor with specific examples of texts that we value in our district, but are not an exhaustive list of the titles we intend to purchase.
- Iowa High School Book Award texts

They Went Left
Monica Hesse
Zofia, a teenage Holocaust survivor, travels across postwar Europe as she searches for her younger brother and seeks to rebuild her shattered life.

The Grace Year
Kim Liggett
It’s forbidden to speak of the grace year. In Gwin County, girls are banished for their sixteenth year to release themselves into the wild so they can return purified and ready for marriage. But not all of them will make it home alive.

I Know You Remember
Jennifer Donaldson
Zahra is missing. After three long years away, Ruthie arrives in her hometown to this devastating news. Zahra was Ruthie’s best friend—the only person who ever really understood her—and she won’t do whatever it takes to find her.

Two Can Keep a Secret
Karen M. McManus
While an eerie afflictioando Eillery and her twin brother are staying with their grandmother in a Vermont community known for murder, a new friend goes missing and Eillery may be near.

We Hunt the Flame
Hafsah Faizal
People lived because she killed. People died because he lived. Both Zafira and Nasir are legends in the kingdom of Arawiya—but neither wants to be.

A Heart in a Body in the World
Deb Caletti
Each step in Annabelle’s 2,700-mile cross-country run brings her closer to facing a trauma from her past in this novel about the heart, all the ways it breaks, and its journey to healing.

Little White Lies
Jennifer Lynn Barnes
Eighteen-year-old auto mechanic Sawyer accepts her estranged grandmother’s job to live with her for a year, participate in the debutante season and ball, and possibly meet the father she has never known.

Where the Crawdads Sing
Delia Owens
Viewed with suspicion in the aftermath of a murder, Kya Clark, who has survived alone for years in a marsh near the North Carolina coast, becomes targeted by unthinkible forces.

No Exit: A Novel
Taylor Adams
On her way to see her dying mother, Darby gets caught in a blizzard and must wait out the storm at a rest stop with four complete strangers. Desperate to find a signal to call home, Darby goes back out into the storm...and makes a terrifying discovery.

With the Fire on High
Elizabeth Acevedo
Even though she dreams of working as a chef after she graduates, teen mom Emari knows it’s not worth her time to pursue the impossible. Yet despite the “rules,” once Emari starts cooking, her only choice is to let her talent break free.
